

Latin Curriculum Information Year 11

Autumn Term

Unit title	Key Questions	Knowledge	Assessing Understanding
Stage 24	What do the life and career of Agricola reveal about how the Romans governed their empire?	Uses of the Subjunctive I: When/since clauses + imperfect and pluperfect subjunctive Opposites - in-/dis-/ne- Governing Britannia	How understanding is assessed Questioning Teacher, peer and self marking of translation and comprehension tasks, in-class and homework Skills Vocabulary & Derivations Translation & Comprehension Source Analysis Literary Style Analysis Essay Planning and Writing Assessment Point Information Weekly Vocabulary Tests on GCSE specification Comprehension and Translation Assessments Mock Exams across Language and Literature
Stage 25	Why might some people have found a career in the Roman army appealing?	Uses of the Subjunctive II: Indirect Questions All persons of the subjunctive The legionary soldier: recruitment, training, work, pay, promotion. The auxiliaries.
Stage 26	How did Romans exert power across the empire?	Uses of the Subjunctive III: Indirect Questions Abstract nouns from verbs Senior soldiers in the Roman army; the legionary fortress.
Literature: Themes	What is the context for our thematic literature? What can the visual sources tell us about our theme? What do texts from different authors tell us about our theme? How is Latin poetry different to prose? How do I find and explore poetic literary techniques? How can I revise effectively for a literature exam?	Visual material and textual information about the literary theme. Translation, comprehension and analysis of set poetry and prose.

Spring Term

Unit title	Key Questions	Knowledge	Assessing Understanding
Stage 27	The importance of Chester	Uses of the Subjunctive IV: Indirect Command Uses of the Subjunctive V: Result Clauses -tudo nouns from adjectives Towns in Britannia; life in and around Deva (Chester)	How understanding is assessed Questioning Teacher, peer and self marking of translation and comprehension tasks, in-class and homework Skills Vocabulary & Derivations Translation & Comprehension Source Analysis Literary Style Analysis Essay Planning and Writing Assessment Point Information Weekly Vocabulary Tests on GCSE specification Comprehension and Translation Assessments Regular quizzing on literary texts
Stage 28	How Roman was Roman Britain?	The Ablative: forms and uses Expressions of Time Complex Relative Clauses Longer sentences -ia nouns from adjectives Roman culture and identity, the kinds of evidence for life in Roman Britain, and what can be learned from them. Conquest and control of Britain, regional differences, challenges, and Tacitus' accounts.	Assessment Point Information Weekly Vocabulary Tests on GCSE specification Comprehension and Translation Assessments Regular quizzing on literary texts
Literature: Themes	What do texts from different authors tell us about our theme? How is Latin poetry different to prose? How do I find and explore poetic literary techniques? How do I plan and write a thematic essay? How can I revise effectively for a literature exam?	Translation, comprehension and analysis of set poetry and prose.

Summer Term

Unit title	Key Questions	Knowledge	Assessing Understanding
Stages 29 + 30	How do passive verbs work in English and Latin? How are they formed? What is a deponent verb in Latin?	The Passive Voice - present, imperfect and perfect Deponent Verbs	How understanding is assessed Questioning Teacher, peer and self marking of translation and comprehension tasks, in-class and homework
Stage 33	How does Latin form the future tense in different conjugations?	The Future Tense	Skills Vocabulary & Derivations Translation & Comprehension Source Analysis Literary & Character Analysis Essay Planning and Writing
Literature: Themes	How can I revise effectively for a literature exam?	Content Revision and Exam Skills	Assessment Point Information GCSE Exams